UNIVERSITY OF BARCELONA INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL 2016

THE UNIVERSITY OF BARCELONA

The University of Barcelona, founded in 1455, and its own history is closely tied to the history of the city of Barcelona. It is a public institution highly ranked internationally and the highest ranked university in Spain. The University of Barcelona is member of the LERU (League of European Research Universities), a network of highly intensive European research universities. The University of Barcelona is a comprehensive university, with over 65.000 students and 24 schools that offer 67 bachelor degree programs, 141 master degree programs, and 48 doctorate degree programs.

The UB combines the values of tradition with its position as an institution dedicated to innovation and teaching excellence: a university as outward-looking and cosmopolitan as the city from which it takes its name.

UNIVERSITY OF BARCELONA INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

This year the University of Barcelona will offer twelve international courses in specialized fields related to business and economics, health sciences, data analysis and social sciences. The courses will allow participants to combine rigorous training and scientific excellence with a unique international experience.

These multidisciplinary courses, taught in English, are offered over one to three weeks, and are open to all international participants, with a focus on students and professionals who wish to gain further knowledge. The courses will be carried out on the premises of the iconic Historic Building of the University of Barcelona, in the heart of the city, and or other interesting urban locations.

The city of Barcelona represents an ideal framework for the University of Barcelona International Summer School. It offers the opportunity to participants to enjoy an environment very rich in cultural events and exciting urban life.
